

All In: Pt.3 - Not On Our Watch

This is a call to action for the church community to commit to raising resilient disciples, encouraging active participation and nurturing relationships for both parents and children.

Bottom Line: We must commit ourselves to raising the strongest generation of disciples of Jesus.

Discussion Questions:

1. What is a memorable tradition or activity from your childhood that you think helped shape who you are today?
2. What role does prayer, commitment, and service play in fulfilling the mission of raising strong disciples?
3. Why is it important for parents to be disciples of Jesus themselves before they can disciple their children?
4. Read Deuteronomy 6:4–9. How does this passage guide parents in teaching their children about God? Why is this important?
5. Read Deuteronomy 30:15–20. How does this passage challenge us to choose a life of faithfulness for ourselves and our descendants?
6. Read Judges 2:6–13. How does this passage illustrate the consequences of failing to pass on faith to the next generation? What can we do, as followers of Jesus, to avoid failing also?
7. Read 2 Timothy 1:5 & 2 Timothy 3:10–15. How do these verses highlight the importance of mentorship and spiritual heritage in a believer's life.
8. What are you personally doing to grow in your own relationship with Jesus Christ? Is there more that you can be doing? Discuss.
9. What has been the most helpful thought/idea from the message this week? How has that thought/idea helped you?
10. How can the group encourage you this week?
